Professional Designation

SHRM-CP® - SHRM Certified Professional. Melissa satisfied the requirements for SHRM-CP® certification as prescribed by the Society for Human Resource Management in 2021. The SHRM-CP® designation is designed for human resource professionals who are engaged primarily in operational roles - implementing policies, serving as the human resources point of contact for staff and stakeholders, and/or performing day-to-day human resources functions. The SHRM-CP® designation is voluntary; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial or human resources professionals to hold the SHRM-CP® designation.

To attain the right to use the SHRM-CP® designation, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

- Meet certain education and experience prerequisites.
- Achieve a passing score on the SHRM-CP® exam, which is a computer-based proctored exam, consisting of 160 questions to be completed within four hours.
- Complete the SHRM-CP® application and submit application and testing fees.

Individuals who earn the designation must recertify and maintain their credential by earning a minimum of 60 professional development credits over a three-year period or retake the examination.
