

2024 Standard Deductions, Exemptions and Credits

Standard Deductions. The standard deduction for singles and married persons filing separate returns is $14,600, up from $13,850 in 2023. The deduction for married couples filing jointly and surviving spouses is $29,200, up from $27,700 in 2023. The deduction for head of household is $21,900, up from $20,800 in 2023.

FILING STATUS	STANDARD DEDUCTION AMOUNT
Single	$14,600
Married Filing Jointly & Surviving Spouse	$29,200
Married Filing Separately	$14,600
Head of Household	$21,900

Itemized Deductions. For high-income taxpayers who itemize their deductions, the Pease limitations, named after former Representative Don Pease (D-OH), previously capped or phased out certain deductions. The Pease limitation was eliminated as of the 2018 tax year, but will return after 2025 when the Tax Jobs and Cuts Act of 2017 expires, unless Congress takes action to adjust that expiration.

Personal Exemptions. There will be no personal exemption amounts for 2024. The personal exemption was eliminated as of the 2018 tax year, but will return after 2025 when the Tax Jobs and Cuts Act of 2017 expires, unless Congress takes action to adjust that expiration.

Family Related Tax Item Updates:

Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC). For 2024, the maximum EITC amount available is $4,213 for taxpayers filing jointly with one child; $6,960 for two children; $7,830 for three or more children and $632 for no children. Phaseouts are based on filing status and number of children and begin at $10,330 for single taxpayers with no children and $22,720 for single taxpayers with one or more children. In 2024, the EITC is not allowed if the aggregate amount of investment income is more than $11,600.

Child Tax Credit. The refundable portion of the Child Tax Credit may be as much as $1,700 per child. A refundable credit means that you can use the credit even if you do not owe any tax.

Kiddie Tax. For 2024, the exemption from the kiddie tax is $2,600, up from $2,500 in 2023. A parent will be able to elect to include a child's income on the parent's return for 2024 if the child's income is more than $1,300 and less than $13,000.

Adoption Credit. For 2024, the credit allowed for an adoption of a child with special needs is $16,810, and the maximum credit allowed for other adoptions is the amount of qualified adoption expenses up to $16,810. Phaseouts begin with modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) in excess of $252,150 and completely phased out with MAGI of $292,150 or more.

Education Related Updates:

American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC). Formerly known as the Hope Scholarship Credit, the AOTC for 2024 will be an amount equal to 100% of qualified tuition and related expenses not in excess of $2,000 plus 25% of those expenses in excess of $2,000 but not in excess of $4,000. That means that the maximum AOTC allowable for 2024 is $2,500. Income restrictions do apply and for 2024, those kick in for taxpayers with MAGI in excess of $80,000 ($160,000 for a joint return).

Lifetime Learning Credit. As with the AOTC, income restrictions apply to the Lifetime Learning Credit. For 2024, those restrictions begin with taxpayers with MAGI in excess of $80,000 ($160,000 for a joint return).

Student Loan Interest Deduction. For 2024, the maximum amount that you can take as a deduction for interest paid on student loans remains at $2,500. Phaseouts apply for taxpayers with MAGI in excess of $70,000 ($145,000 for joint returns), and is completely phased out for taxpayers with MAGI of $95,000 or more ($175,000 or more for joint returns).
